

Mortgage Late? Don't Wait!

Contact Your Mortgage Servicer Now

Call your mortgage servicer (“servicer”) as soon as possible to discuss your options to avoid foreclosure.

- The contact information for your servicer is on your monthly statement. Tell your servicer if you are experiencing financial hardship due to the COVID-19 pandemic or for any other reason.
- Ask your servicer to evaluate your eligibility for programs to avoid foreclosure – this is called a “loss mitigation review”.

Remain in contact with your servicer throughout the loss mitigation review process.

- Check your mail frequently. Promptly respond to voicemails and requests for information from your servicer.
- Make sure your servicer has your current contact information. Your servicer may proceed with foreclosure if you are unresponsive or if it is unable to reach you.

Do not skip payments if you can afford to pay your regular installment amount on time.

- There is no reason to purposefully go into default to qualify for foreclosure prevention or loss mitigation programs. Doing so could negatively affect your credit and impact your eligibility for such programs.
- If you can afford to make partial payments, discuss this option with your servicer first. Depending on the terms of your mortgage, partial payments may not be sufficient to keep your loan out of default.

Your mortgage servicer is the company that you send your mortgage payments to. The servicer is responsible for collecting and managing your payments, among other duties.

Your servicer may not be the same company that originated your mortgage loan. Your servicer may change periodically - it is normal for mortgage loans to be transferred to new servicers.

You will be notified by mail if your servicer changes. Promptly open all mail, and inform your servicer if you change your mailing address, email, or phone number.

Your Rights as a Mortgage Borrower in Maryland

You have the right to receive from your mortgage servicer timely answers to your questions, and a prompt response after you ask to be reviewed for options to avoid foreclosure.

- You are also entitled to receive an accurate copy of your payment history, if you request this from your servicer.
- Keep a written record of all your interactions with your servicer, including who you spoke with and when.

You have the right to be informed by your mortgage servicer of all your loss mitigation options.

- Contact your servicer and ask about loss mitigation. Do not be afraid to ask additional questions if you don't understand the financial implications of your options.
- If you would like to dispute the results of the loss mitigation review, ask your servicer if there is an appeals process.

You have the right to participate in a mediation session with your servicer if you are served with foreclosure papers and your home is your primary residence.

- Do not wait until your mediation to begin communicating with your servicer. The sooner you reach out for help, the more likely you will be able to avoid foreclosure.
- Legal services may be available, for free or at a reduced rate, to help you during your mediation session. To learn more about Maryland's foreclosure mediation program, visit the website homeownerassistance.maryland.gov.

NOTE: Some mortgage servicers may be exempt from certain state or federal requirements. Contact our office if you need help with your servicer.

Beware of Foreclosure-Prevention Scams!

DO NOT SEND your payments to anyone other than your servicer.

DO NOT BELIEVE anyone promising that they will "save your home".
