

Secure Wage Complaint
 (Secure Maryland Wage Act
 Labor and Employment Article, Section 3-1601
 Annotated Code of Maryland)

The Secure Maryland Wage Act requires employers to pay at least a certain wage rate to covered employees working at Baltimore-Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport or Pennsylvania Station in Baltimore.

This does not include employees who work at retail establishments, food service facilities, or an on-airport or off-airport motor vehicle rental company, or any other company involved in motor vehicle rental operations.

If you feel your rights may have been violated under this law, complete this form, provide supporting documentation, and mail the complaint form to the address below. Upon receipt, the Commissioner will investigate and notify you of its determination.
